

Greaves Plays Winning Hand in CORR Round 13 at Primm Valley

Primm, NV (November 3, 2007) - Johnny Greaves came to Nevada on a mission from the Monster Energy, Potawatomi Toyota chiefs, and won the opening Pro-4 race in typical Greaves style. Greaves started on the second row, but took advantage of a tricky turn 2 to pass from 4th to first on lap 5 of the 16 lap free-for-all.

“I looked thru the dust and saw that the guys in front of me were struggling keeping it on the track in that turn and I just really hooked up well there myself,” said Greaves afterwards. “It was great to get another win in front of a big crowd here in a new location for us.”

Greaves avoided the carnage from a big crash by Huesman early in the race. He managed to work his way into the lead by the 5th lap. It was pretty much smooth sailing from that point on as Greaves took the win and put the popular Monster Energy Potawatomi Toyota on the top podium spot.

“My crew really worked hard putting in a fresh TRD motor before the race and I am happy to win this one for them.”
